

Conference program

Tuesday, 3 April 2012

lecturing hall of Unitaria Palace, Anenská Street no. 5, Prague 1

9.00 – 10.00

registration of participants

10.00 – 13.00

Hugh Willmott

A bawdy joke or refined dining? The problems of assigning status and meaning as exemplified by novelty drinking vessels

Claire Finn

The culture of drinking and social indicators in the Dutch Golden Age

Joanna Dąbal

Imported pottery in the 16th-17th century Gdansk: luxurious or common? Archaeological studies

Karol Kwiatkowski

Pottery – porcelain and earthenware – as a source for research on the social status in the Modern period town of Stargard

Thomas Pototschnig

Three post-medieval cemeteries at a single excavation site in Vienna

Natascha Mehler – Ronny Wessling – Anita Soos – Klaus Schindl – Kathi Hansi –

Maria Röcklinger – Melanie Sindelar – Melanie Juritsch

Death spares neither small nor great: social status in the burials of the old Matzleinsdorf cemetery in Vienna (1784-1879)

Pavčina Mašková – Daniel Wojtucki

„Makeshift graveyards.“ The burial of the disgraced and other social outcasts in the Lands of Bohemian Crown in the 16th-18th centuries

Václav Bůžek

Heraldic galleries in the symbolic decoration of Bohemian and Moravian Renaissance châteaux

14.30 – 18. 30

Veronica Velasquez

Material culture and the ideology of blood purity in New Spain

Daniel Hupko

Countess Lucia Pálffyová (nee Wilczeková): gifts given and received as a reflection of the social status of the aristocrat at the turn of the 20th century

Gabriela Blažková – Jan Frolík – Josef Matiašek

Golden Lane at Prague Castle: the archaeological excavation in 2010

Karel Kašák

Butchers – the revivers of gold mining in Kašperské Hory in the 17th century

Jan Frolík – Jan Musil

Cesspit no. 938 in Hradební Street in Chrudim. An attempt to determine the owner's status

Pavel Vařeka

A reflection of the social standing and living standard of rural feudal subjects in archaeological sources. The testimonial potential of defunct village layers from the period of the Thirty Years' War

Milan Procházka

Changes in social status and structure of the population in the Nové Strašecí region during the 16th and 17th centuries

Monika Michnik – Radosław Zdaniewicz

Archaeological excavation of the remains of an Early Modern manor in Kozłów in the Upper Silesia district

Petr Čech – Michal B. Soukup – Markéta Soukupová

A lone Modern period building at the „Skotník“ site in Žatec

Michal B. Soukup

The Romanesque wing of Teplice Château over the centuries

Olgierd Ławrynowicz

Research on the identification of Nazi victims of repression from the beginning of World War II from excavations on the outskirts of Lodz and Warsaw

Wednesday, 4 April 2012

lecturing hall of Unitaria Palace, Anenská Street no. 5, Prague 1

9.00 –

Karolina Szczepanowska

Stove tiles from an excavation in Tartaczna Street in Gdansk. A preliminary study of the economic status of inhabitants of the craftsmen's area

Jaroslav Jiřík – Jan Kypka – Vlastimil Simota – Martin Pták

The social context of Gothic stove tiles over the course of time. An assemblage of Early Modern period finds from Horosedly in the Písek district

Irena Loskotová – Zdeněk Schenk

An assemblage of Late Medieval and Early Modern period panel tiles from house no. 26 on Horní náměstí in Přerov

Michaela Balášová – Markéta Soukupová

The transfer of Renaissance art motifs from terracotta decoration at aristocratic residences to the stove tiles of burghers

Povilas Blaževičius

The toys – a link to the social status of the player

Tomáš Durdík

The find of a handle of a luxurious table knife/fork from Křivoklát Castle

Jan Musil

Women's metal chain belts. Common jewellery or archaeological treasure?

Kristýna Peroutková Matějková

Garden pottery from the Wallenstein Loggia near Jičín

Michal Preusz

An ordinary washbasin or an uncommon medium? Sanitary ceramics as a reflection of the social identity of man in the Early Modern period

Mário Bielich

Reformation motifs and allegories on stove tiles from Slovakia

* * *

Hana Jordánková – Irena Loskotová

Sanitary vessels in Brno households in the 16th and 17th centuries

Václav Matoušek

Rozvadov 1621. The results of the first two seasons of the systematic archaeological research of a Thirty Years' War battleground

Ladislav Čapek – Michal Preusz

A historical-archaeological understanding of shepherding: Late Medieval and Modern period sheepfolds in southern Bohemia

Veronika Dudková – Jiří Orna

The development of house no. 138 on náměstí Republiky in Plzeň in the Modern period

Lucie Galusová

A synthesis of archaeological information concerning mills that became defunct after 1945

Petr Žákovský

Finds of swords and left-handed daggers from Moravia